

BOTH MEN ARE GUILTY

Mantir, Second Degree; Delorey, Manslaughter

MULLIN'S CASE VERDICT

The Case Discussed for Over Three Hours—Charge Was Given in the Forenoon by Judge
White.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 18.—Peter Deorey of Somerville, Mass., was yesterday found guilty of manslaughter and James Mantir, the Manchester, N. H., Greek barber, was found guilty of murder in the second degree in connection with the death of Annie E. Mullina at Arlington a year ago last March.

The verdict was rendered at 3:35.
The Annie Mullins murder case, has been on trial in the superior court at East Cambridge for three weeks.

Against James Mantir the jury returned a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. Against the other defendant, Peter C. Delorey, the verdict is manslaughter.

The case has been on trial before Judge White and Fox. The evidence and arguments were completed Tuesday, and at 9:15 yesterday morning Judge White began his charge to the jury.

The court completed the charge at 11:37 o'clock and the jury immediately retired to begin its consideration of the evidence and decide upon its verdict.

GIRL TAKEN TO VACANT OFFICE AND MURDERED

Fourteen-year-old Helen Zenda Strangled to Death in Fight for Her Life.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 18.—The body of Helen Zenda, a pretty girl, 14 years old, who had been missing from her home since Friday, was found yesterday in an abandoned real estate office. Finger marks on her neck indicate that she was strangled to death. After she had been killed, she was placed in a sitting posture under a desk.

The police are searching for two young men. The real estate office, which is in a handy section, had been entered by the window being pried open. Dust marks showed where the girl had been dragged against the wall, and it is believed that the girl struggled with her captors and used the chair as a weapon.

The disordered condition of the office showed that the girl had made a brave fight to protect her honor and her life.
Several rounds of the chair, with which it is believed, she defended herself, were broken, and it is the belief of the police that they were fractured through contact with the heads of the men.

The point at which the body of the girl was found is in the northwest section of the city, and the section is little frequented. This neighborhood has been the scene of several bold-ups within the last few weeks, and it is the belief of the police that the two men, whose descriptions they have, are the murderers of the girl.

EIGHTEEN GO DOWN ON AN ITALIAN STEAMER.

Vessel Carrying Workmen Strikes Rock Off Brindisi.

Rome, Nov. 18.—Eighteen men were drowned yesterday when the steamer Marin Adalgisa struck a rock and sank off Brindisi. The steamer was carrying a force of workmen from Brindisi to the fortifications which are being constructed near there for coast defense.
So large was the hole torn in the steamer's hull that she sank immediately.

A Startling Statement

New York Medical Authorities Claim Dyspepsia to be a Predisposing Cause of Consumption.

The post mortem statistics of the big New York hospitals show that cases of consumption are due, at least indirectly, to unchecked dyspepsia, especially when the victim was predisposed to tuberculosis.

Dyspepsia weakens out the body and brain. The weakened, irritable stomach being unable to digest food, the body does not receive the required nourishment, and the victim becomes thin, weak and haggard. As a result, the body becomes a fertile field, in which the germs of disease may lodge and flourish.

Therefore, the person who permits dyspepsia to progress unhindered is guilty of contributing toward the development of one of the most insidious and fatal diseases known to mankind.

Dyspepsia may be completely eradicated, if properly treated. We sell a remedy that we positively guarantee will completely relieve indigestion or dyspepsia, or the medicine used during the trial will cost the user nothing.

This remedy has been named Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. Certainly no offer could be more fair, and our offer should be proof positive that Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are a dependable remedy.

Inasmuch as the medicine will cost you nothing if it does not benefit you, we urge you who are suffering with indigestion or dyspepsia to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets. A 25-cent box contains enough medicine for fifteen days' treatment. For chronic cases we have two larger sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall remedies in COUSIN OF PRINCE A SUICIDE.

Had Been Arrested in New Orleans for Marrying an Octoroon.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 18.—Edward Von Buelow, first cousin of Prince Von Buelow, of Germany committed suicide yesterday by jumping into the river, because he was married to a young woman, who was a woman of color. Von Buelow was arrested a week ago, charged with violating the concubinage law, which prohibits such relations between the races. As marriages between the races are also prohibited, the marriage license did not preclude prosecution under the concubinage act.

It seems that Von Buelow came to this country about twelve years ago and in 1902 was married to a young woman, who claimed to be a widow with two children. She was almost white, and the marriage was performed in the Jefferson parish. She bore him two children and the family lived in a quiet residential district and seemed happy.

Neighborhood gossip finally led to an investigation and disclosed the fact that she was a woman of color. Von Buelow was arrested and released on bond, but disappeared three days ago. His body was found in the Mississippi river yesterday afternoon. Von Buelow was working in the federal internal revenue service.

Hill, after her death in his office in and Alvin A. Sanders of Chicago. Secretary MacVaugh and the members of the board discussed with the president the work of the new board in some detail. It was the first time the president had met the members since their appointment last summer.

ICE PROSECUTION NEAR END.

Defence Will Soon Begin Development of Its Case.

New York, Nov. 18.—The end of the presentation of the state's case against the American Ice company for alleged violation of the anti-monopoly law is believed to be in sight yesterday. Within a day or two, it is expected, the prosecution will rest and the defense begin. Further documentary evidence was submitted yesterday, the letter files of the company being liberally drawn upon in an effort to throw light upon methods alleged to have been used by the company in stifling competition.

POLITICS AND SUGAR

Influence of Congressman Parson's Against Collector

HAD FOWLER REMOVED

Supporter of Cortelyou for President Removed When Taft Took Seat.
Now Fowler Will Attack the Sugar Trust.

New York, Nov. 18.—Harvey T. Andrews, formerly Republican leader of the 31st assembly district, admitted yesterday that his close personal friend, Congressman Herbert Parsons, had used his political influence as chairman of the Republican county committee in an effort to control the appointment of the collector of customs at this port. Mr. Parsons is a son of John E. Parsons, the indicted counsel of the late Henry O.
Havemeyer, and himself a member of the firm of Parsons, Cleason & Melvaine of 52 Williams street, general counsel of the sugar trust.

"Parsons refused to endorse the appointment of Col. Edward S. Fowler for collector in 1907," said Mr. Andrews to a reporter, who saw him yesterday in his office at 128 Broadway, where he is an appraiser in the state comptroller's office.

"Col. Fowler had the backing of Secretary of the Treasury Cortelyou," continued Mr. Andrews, "and President Roosevelt was willing to name him, but Parsons opposed it."

Cortelyou then secured for Fowler the appointment of Alfred R. Page, the second highest man in authority in the county committee, and recently elected supreme court justice. Later on U. S.
Senator Platt lent his name to the Col-fowler appointment, and this gave his selection the color of an approval by the old line bosses of the Republican party in New York county.

Col. Fowler began his duties as collector, Dec. 26, 1907. He was removed March 9, 1909, to make room for William Loeb, ex-secretary of President Roosevelt. Col. Fowler had the backing of Secretary Cortelyou prior to the Chicago convention. After the election of President Taft, he expected removal.

His fidelity to Cortelyou, the presidential appraiser, was regarded at the time the cause of losing his job.

Since there has been talk of a congressional investigation, Col. Fowler has for several days been preparing a statement at his home, 545 West 108th street.
When it comes out, according to Capt.
Harry A. Ely, a friend of the ex-collector, with an office at 105 Broadway, it will be a broadside.

Mr. Ely said: "The sugar trust caused the removal of Col. Fowler, because he persisted in collecting evidence of its robbery of the U. S. government. Why don't you find out whether Parsons ever sent one of his leaders, a man who knew Fowler in the appraiser's office, to warn Fowler?"

The only Parsons assembly leader who appears to have been on good terms with Col. Fowler was Harvey T. Andrews, and he denied absolutely yesterday that he had ever been commissioned by Parsons to deliver such a warning. Mr. Andrews resigned two years ago as a federal appraiser of metal importations.

STORROW FOR MAYOR.

Banker to be Boston's Reform Candidate for Office.

Boston, Nov. 18.—James J. Storrow, a member of the firm of Lee, Higginson & Co., bankers, and an overseer of Harvard university and president of the Chamber of Commerce, was selected last night by the committee of 150 to be the reform candidate for mayor of Boston under the new city charter. As Storrow has already signified his willingness to run, it only remains for him to take out blank nomination papers, and secure the signatures of 5,000 voters, which can readily be done.

The indications are that Storrow's strongest opponent will be former Mayor Fitzgerald, and if Mayor Hibbard decides to continue in the race it will be hard sledding for the reform candidate.

ROCKY BOY'S BAND CAUGHT.

Will be Returned to Blackfeet Reservation.

Washington, Nov. 18.—"Rocky Boy's" band of Sioux Indians, said to belong in Canada, have been rounded up in Montana under the superintendent of the Blackfeet Indian reservation, according to information received at the Interior department. There are one hundred and twenty-two persons in the band who have been roaming around in the country, living as best they could. When they were taken in hand their position was said to be in need of subsistence and the Bureau of Indian Affairs here authorized the expenditure of $10,000 for that purpose. The band will be held for the winter at the Blackfeet reservation and next summer will be taken to the borders of the reservation.

LABOR THINS ITS RANKS

Some Local Unions Lose
Their Charters

BY INTERNAL WRANGLES

In Convention at Toronto—A New Federation Recognized in Ohio—Attempt Made to Settle Electrical Workers' Fight.

Toronto, Nov. 18.—The appeal of the Ohio State Federation of Labor from the revocation of its charter was dismissed yesterday. It was voted to recognize only the newly-formed Ohio federation.
The convention authorized the calling of a conference of the warring factions of the Brotherhood of Electrical Workers before Sept. 1, next, to settle their dispute.

The appeals of the Iowa State Federation of Labor and the central bodies of Cleveland, Toledo, Dayton, Cedar Rapids, Milwaukee and San Francisco, whose charters had been revoked, were dismissed.

The revocation of the charter of the Ohio State Federation by the executive council for admitting to its membership seceding locals of the electrical workers was approved. The convention then adopted the report of its committee on laws that the appeal of the Ohio body be dismissed, although some of the delegates declared that the Ohio federation was being made the "post" in the controversy. The executive council was directed to attempt to only the trade unions of Ohio in the new state federation.

The plan of settling the disagreement among the electrical workers was recommended to the convention by its committee on laws, which was adopted. It called for the appointment of a committee of three trade unionists to call the proposed convention of the electrical workers. The members of this committee are to be chosen by President Com-pess, F. J. McNulty, president of the reorganized faction, and J. J. Reid, leader of the so-called secessionists. The committee is to attend the proposed convention in an advisory capacity and to report to the executive council of the federation whether either faction has failed to promote the adjustment of the dispute. Presidents McNulty and Reid pledged their followers to the support of this plan.

The committee on laws reported that the Iowa federation admitted a violation of the federation law and recommended that upon compliance with the law their charter be restored. This was ratified by the convention.

In the case of the central bodies of Cleveland, Toledo, Dayton, Cedar Rapids, Milwaukee and San Francisco, whose charters were revoked as a result of the electrical workers' controversy, the committee recommended that these organizations at once comply with the laws of the federation, "and thereby maintain peace and unity in their respective cities."

The committee took no action on appeals from Detroit and Indianapolis central bodies, which have complied with the constitution of the federation.

BARRE GIRLS FOR OPIUM.

So Stated of Natives of Saran-gani.

Manila, Nov. 18.—The natives of Sa-rangani, a group of islands to the south of Mindanao, are offering in barter young girls each for one ounce of opium, according to W. S. Lyon, a horticulturist who returned to-day from a trip through the south coast of Mindanao.
Mr. Lyon is engaged in securing specimens of tropical fruits for the department of agriculture at Washington.

The horticultural reports that there is a considerable traffic in opium in South Mindanao, carried on by way of Palm Island. The government customs visit that district occasionally, but they are lacking in number and facility to suppress the traffic. Mr. Lyon secured a new fruit called "balun," which he asserts is superior to the mango and the mangosteen.

The U. S. Pacific fleet, under Rear Admiral Schervill, has begun target practice in Manila bay. This practice and maneuvers will occupy the remainder of the month.

CATHOLIC BAN ON ALCOHOL.

French Clergy Take Another Step in the War Against Government.

Paris, Nov. 18.—Advancing another step in their campaign against the public schools, the Catholic clergy yesterday placed under the ban a school at Grezobry, where the teacher had disregarded the warning against the use of interdicted textbooks. The Comblats advocated retaliation by an official inspection of Catholic textbooks, which they claim teach opposition to the republic and hatred of liberty.

GEN. GRANT HAD TO QUIT.

Forced to Leave His Home by Fire in Basement.

Chicago, Nov. 18.—Major Gen. Frederick Dent Grant, commander of the department of the lakes, was forced to quit his home, 1408 Dearborn ave., yesterday by fire, which originated in the basement and for a time threatened to consume the house.

Gen. Grant assisted his wife in escaping by climbing out of a window to the porch roof and descending to the ground by a ladder which firemen raised.

Several of the servants were carried down ladders by the firemen.

OHIONEWSPAPERS APPEAL TO PRESIDENT.

Washington, Nov. 18.—John T. Mach, president of the Associated Ohio Dailies, an organization of 116 newspapers, has sent to President Taft and to the members of the cabinet a letter asking for such action on print paper duty as will avoid a trade war in Canada.

THE UPLIFTERS.

By M. QUAD.

Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.

Miss Ethel Wareham, girl philanthropist, was one of the fifty ladies, old and young, that attended the called meeting of the Uplifters. That society seemed to be mainly composed of Mrs. General Baron, her husband and her son, Fred, the latter a young man of twenty-three. Mrs. General was president, her husband treasurer and Fred secretary. The object of the society, as stated at the first public meeting, was to uplift the poor and do away with poverty. When Mrs. General had got through speaking and the general had got through speaking and Fred had finished his remarks it was quite plain to the audience now the uplifting was to be done.

Various committees were appointed and asked to report at the next meeting. Miss Wareham was appointed a committee of one to accumulate general knowledge on the subject of up-lifting, and it is mostly with her report submitted at the next meeting that this story has to do. When Mrs.
General had reported that the way to uplift the poor was to secure them situations as banks and offices at good salaries and the general had reported in favor of providing them with musical instruments and young Fred had given it as his opinion that the better brand of cigars smoked by the poor man the sooner he would climb to the top Miss Wareham arose and made her report, as follows:

"A day or two after the last meeting I prepared myself with raiment suitable to a poor young girl and made a trip among the dwellers of the tenements. In doing so I came across several members of this society on errands of charity. Some of them had sheet music and some had sweet cakes for the poor. They brought no considerable pay back rent. They talked a great deal about the uplifting process, and efforts were made to convince hungry people that they ought to get together and organize debating schools and strive for a higher plane. They referred to Abraham Lincoln being born in a log hut and to John of Arc feeding pigs and milking cows. Very affecting. Must have been like a full meal to the hungry."

At this point Mrs. General interrupted to say that time pressed and the remainder of the report could be disposed of with, but Miss Wareham refused to give way and went on:

"One of our members and a prominent philanthropist advertised for a parlor maid. Nothing was said of any uplifting, but that was inferred. I wrote myself a recommendation and applied for the place. I was told that I must not presume on the fact that I could read and write. Under no circumstances was I to open a book from the library. If ever found drumming on the piano instant discharge would be the penalty. Objected to my doing up my hair like a lady. Objected to my small feet. Met her husband the next day. He said I could uplift by copying the manners of his wife. Met her son. He wanted to put me on the cheek; said that was the first step in uplifting."

"A motion to adjourn will be in order," announced Mrs. General as she arose, with blazing face, but no one made such a motion, and Miss Wareham continued:

"I was worked about sixteen hours per day. The food given us servants was about the same as the average tenement family sits down to. No family prayers to uplift us. No playing and singing of sacred music. When we spoke of attending church we were informed that the house could not be upset. We were not even furnished tracts on the sin of profanity and intemperance. Whenever I en
